

VSAR-3200/ARHS-3200. Contemporary Italian Culture

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: April 12, 2013

PDC130315-4.1

Course Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. describe diverse elements of Italian culture and community; employ primary oral skills to voice the everyday language of Italian in Volterra	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B.	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. employ vernacular usage of Italian to resolve issues and understand situations that arise from cultural differences and unfamiliar behaviors in an international setting	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. employ basic Italian grammar and techniques of conversation as they relate to everyday situations and to local art and culture	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. express themselves appropriately and respectfully in an Italian language community	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. negotiate participation in art sites and engage in cultural activities	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G.	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H. identify and interpret Italian solutions to common design problems and aesthetic issues	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. propose avenues for future research and/or creative projects based on the work they have accomplished	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning