

VSAR-3710. Art in Public Spaces

Learning Outcomes

Last Updated: May 9, 2014

PDC140402-5.6

Course Learning Outcomes This is a sentence completion exercise.	Characteristics of a University of Windsor Graduate
At the end of this course, the successful student will know and be able to:	A U of Windsor graduate will have the ability to demonstrate:
A. Design and execute public art projects that reflect issues and interests identified by students in the class	A. the acquisition, application and integration of knowledge
B. Research, identify and articulate complex problems in the conception and realization of public works of art	B. research skills, including the ability to define problems and access, retrieve and evaluate information (information literacy)
C. Demonstrate how to gain access to communities and/or individuals in pursuit of research and project realization and effectively represent their subject visually	C. critical thinking and problem-solving skills
D. Define clear, concise proposals that speak to a variety of audiences Estimate budgets that reflect available resources or target revenue streams	D. literacy and numeracy skills
E. Evaluate the ethical considerations surrounding topics of investigation and responsibly represent their subjects	E. responsible behaviour to self, others and society
F. Demonstrate a range of communication skills in discussions and oral presentations	F. interpersonal and communications skills
G. Co-operate with others and debate and criticize the work of team members and peers in a respectful and constructive manner	G. teamwork, and personal and group leadership skills
H. Design public art projects that reflect issues and interests identified by students in the class	H. creativity and aesthetic appreciation
I. Propose avenues for future research and/or creative projects based on the work they have accomplished	I. the ability and desire for continuous learning